OBITUARY

JAMES KING and ROBERT HARDY

At a special meeting of the members of Local Assembly of Jefferson 9176 K. of L., of Steubenville, to take into consideration the following preamble and resolutions on the sudden demise of James King and Robert Hardy, the former being under quite tragic circumstances, and the latter being sudden and unexpected.

JAMES KING was on the way home, having been transacting some business connected with building a house in Mingo, and was walking on the track of the Panhandle R.R., when a train coming at great speed in rounding the curve struck him with a fatal result, the sad event occurring Dec. 19, 1887. Brother King was a man who had experienced considerable trouble, having had two boys drowned in the Ohio river about nine years ago within five hundred yards of where the father met his tragic death. So with the past and present occupying his mind it is to be supposed that the messenger of death in the fast going train was far from his thoughts at the time. Brother King was a man who had the confidence and esteem of the whole community and their sympathy in the loss of his two boys, which affliction could easily be read in his countenance.

In Brother ROBERT HARDY the assembly has lost one of its staunch supporters.Being one of the most efficient officers he was remarkably prompt in the discharge of his duties. He was a man of very robust constitution; in the very prime of his life his sudden demise was quite unexpected, only eight days having elapsed from his first illness until death claimed him. He went from this city to Wheeling Creek to engage in his business, that of coal mining, and it is supposed that the sudden change of the atmosphere and wateraffected him in such a manner as to cause diarr hoea followed by typhoid fever which ended the sad beginning.His bereaved wife and two small children have the heartfelt sympathy of the entire community in this their most sad affliction; an affectionate father and husband has passed from earth to eternity..

RESOLUTION OF RESPECT signed by James McCloskey, John Philipson and John Laughlin

MISS SARAH FLEMING

The subject of this sketch died Dec. 24, 1887, at her home in Island Creek Township, Jefferson County, Ohio aged 82 years. She was born in Essex County, New Jersey, May 11, 1805, and at the age of 9 years came with her parents to Island Creek Township, where she has since resided. When 19 years old she joined the Methodist Church at Steubenville and remained a member in good standing until the division of that denomination, when she went with her classmates to the M.P. Church, of Steubenville, continuing there until 1837, when she lifted her certificate and joined Bray's Chapel, on Island Creek, of which she was a consistent member until death.

PROBATE COURT--The will of CHARLES ORR, was presented for probate today. It disposes of about $50,000. Rev. Hartnedy is named the esecutor without bond.

OUR NEIGHBORS--WARREN RIDGE

JOHN NEEL,one of the most upright and well known citizens of Warren Township died at his home at Portland on Thursday morning at 2 a. m. of inflamation of the bowels. He was born in the township about 62 years ago; he leaves a wife and five children to mourn his loss. The funeral took place Friday at ten o'clock at the M. P. Church of Portland; the services were conducted by Rev. Walker of Martin's Ferry and after services he was taken to his last resting place at Mt. Pleasant.

ELI CUSICK, one of the best known citizens of this neighborhood, died at his residence on Rush Run Sunday morning at nine o'clock. He was about 73 years old and leaves a wife and nine children to mourn his loss. His funeral took place Monday at two o'clock at Hopewell Church, the pastor Rev. Rader, assisted by Rev. Meek, officiating. Mr. Rader preached an elequent sermon over the remains.

WARRENTON--JOHN NEAL, of Portland, a lifelong Democrat and a good citizen, died on Thursday of last week. Rev. Walker, of Martin'sFerry conducted the funeral services in the Presbyterian Church, of which deceased was a member. The remains were taken to Mt. Pleasant for interment.

ELI CUSICK, one of the pioneers of Methodism, died at his home on Warren Ridge on Sunday morning.

FATHER STRINGER, aged eighty-nine, died at the residence of his son WILLIAM STRINGER, OF Portland, on Tuesday. The funeral took place on Thursday; interment in the Tiltonsville Cemetery.

UNIONPORT--Died on last Saturday morning at one o'clock, of pneumonia, AMOS GIFTON, aged about 60 years. He leaves a wife and two children, both young, to mourn his sudden demise. He was laid to rest in the old Pine Run Cemetery on Sabbath morning, Rev. Clark conducting the obsequies.

JOTTINGS OF THE WEEK --TUESDAY MRS. JAMES WELSH died at her home on Logan Street Monday of pneumonia, aged about fifty-seven years. Her husband died two years ago and two sons and two daughters survive her; William, John, Mrs. Burke, of Cincinnati, and Mary at home. The funeral took place this morning at eight o'clock from St. Peter's Church

The funeral of the late GEORGE FICKES took place from the Protestant Church yesterday afternoon, Rev. Brown and Rev. Fisher officiating. The pall bearers were J. S. Devinney, J. D. Daton, John McMurray and H. Opperman. There was also an escort of Knights Templar, and J. W. Jordan, Master of the Lodge, conducted the services at the grave.

HOWARD HENDRY, WHO LIVES WITH HIS UNCLE, John McClave, Esq.,met with a bad accident yesterday evening. While running across the street near his uncle's residence, on North Fourth Street, he slipped on the ice, and both feet flying from under him, he fell with full force on the back of his head. He was rendered unconscious and at first it was thought his skull was fractured, but this is a mistake. During the night he went through convulsions, but this morning is rational, the concussion of the brain having been relieved. Aside from the painful contusion his injury is not at all serious and it is hoped that he will be himself again in a few days. Howard's father and mother are both dead, his mother dying but a few weeks ago and he was brought here from his home in Texas by his uncle. He is a bright, brave little fellow who has won the admiration and friendship of all with whom he came in contact, and many are the expressions of sorrow over his accident.

THURSDAY --The funeral of ANDY BLAIR took place from his father's residence on North Fourth Street, this morning at 10 o'clock, Rev. Harshaw and Rev. Joseph Buchanan officiating. The pall bearers were Henry Kelly, Jr. W. B. Scott, Michael Morrisy, D. Gilmore, Thomas Sterling, and A. Forsythe.

ED MILLER, of Holliday's Cove, who was so severely injured by being run over by a P. W. & Ky. train a few days ago, that amputation of the right foot and part of the second became necessary, is still at the Panhandle hotel and is improving under the skill of Drs. Elliott and Pearce.

M.N. ADAMS, THE Panhandle brakeman who had his right arm crushed at Wheeling Junction a few days ago is also at the hoteland, although threatened with blood poisoning, is doing well.

FRIDAY--EDWARD MILLER , of Holliday's Cove, in trying to board a moving Pewiky train at Cross Creek yesterday fell on the tracks and the wheels passed over both his legs below the knees, terribly mutilating them and rendering amputation of one leg necessary. He was brought to the hospital in this city today and at last accounts was resting easy.

SATURDAY--The funeral of CHARLES ORR took place from St. Peter's Church this morning at nine o'clock with High Mass. The Very Reverend Dean Hartnedy conducted the services and preached an excellent sermon, dwelling at some length upon the noble, exemplary Catholic life led by the deceased. The pall bearers were John Orr, O. G. Russell, Thomas Barclay, D. P. Tait, C. E. Linnehan, and Thos. McChrystal and the interment was in Mt. Calvary cemetery.

MONDAY--GEORGE FICKES, one of the oldest native born citizens of Steubenville, died at his home on North Sixth Street Sunday evening at 6:05, in his seventy-seventh year. He was born in the house now occupied by Mrs. Kerlin, on South Fourth Street, April 6, 1811, and has lived in the city ever since. For thirty years he was Township Clerk and for many years City Clerk, holding the former position at the time of his death. With the exception of Capt. Devinney, he was the oldest man in the city, Mason joining the lodge in 1841. He was also Knight Templar since 1859. He leaves a wife and one son and one daughter, Jacob G. Fickes and Sarah Fickes, both of this city. His remains will be interred from the M.P. Church Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock, the services to be conducted by the Knights Templar.

MRS. MARGERY LONG , WIFE OF Charles Long, died on Tuesdayat her home, near Long's Meeting House, Cross Creek Township, aged 73 years. Her maiden name was Bines. She was a sister of Alexander Bines, of Bloomfield, well known to the older citizens of the county, of great political prominence way back in the thirties. Mrs. Long was born in Washington Co., Pa. She was a good, true, and devoted woman. She leaves a husband, two sons and one daughter, David of Mingo, Porter and Maggie at home.

News reached the city of the marriage of Miss Ruth Louise McCann, late of this city, to Mrs. W. E. S. Fales, of New York City. Miss McCann, it will be remembered, adopted the theatrical profession some few years ago, and has been very favorably mentioned as a rising young actress by the press generally.Mr. Fales, the bridegroom, we understand, is a writer by profession, and we congratulate him on obtaining one of Steubenville's brightest girls as a partner in life.

OBITUARY

REV. FATHER D. B. CULL pastor of St. John's Catholic Church of Bellaire, died Tuesday. Father Cull was well known and well liked in Steubenville, having been here on several occasions. Father Cull was born Jan. 1848, and for the past seven years he has been troubled with rheumatism, and at times has been confined to his bed by that disease. It was thought by his physicians that he would not recover, but would rally and have moderately good health. Lately, however, his sickness became a burden to him, and he was taken to his bed a few weeks ago,from which he never arose. The immediate cause of his death is supposed to have been heart disease. Father Cull was called to be rector of St. John's Church in August 1877. Prior to that time he was stationed at Portsmouth, Ohio, and had charge of a flourishing parish. He was educated at St. Mary's SeminAry, at Cincinnati, and was a bright and diligent student. He was one of the best educated men of modern times. The time has not been set for the funeral but due notice will be given. The remains were taken to Chillicothe for burial.

SOUTH SIDE

AMON TIPTON, and old resident of Wayne Township, died on Monday morning, of pneumonia, aged sixty years. He leaves a wife and two children to mourn his sudden demise.

MRS. JOHN DUNN--Lida, wife of John Dunn, died Tuesday morning last at half past three, at her home in the Second Ward, this city, in the thirty-seventh year of her age, after a short but painful illness. Deceased was the second daughter of Samuel Hunter, formerly of this city but now of WELLSVILLE. She was born at Darlington, Pa., June 16, 1851, and was married to Mr. Dunn, December 26, 1871. Five children were born to them, all of whom are living. We, with their many friends, extend our condolences to the bereaved husband and children. The interment took place in Calvary Cemetery, Wednesday morning.

DANIEL McCURDY,an old and respected citizen of Steubenville, died at his residence on West Market StreetThursday morning at seven after an illness of fifteen years. He was born in Philadelphia in 1813, but lived in Steubenville the greater part of his life. He was an energetic politician and being an able speaker, was in great demand as a stumper, getting his reward during the war by his appointment as deputy revenue collector for this district, being located in this city. He was a gentleman of the old school, polite, intelligent and affable. He represented this county in the Legislature two terms, and was during the Know-Nothing excitement, President of that organization. He was also at one time a minister of the Baptist Church, and for a time he followed the saddlery trade. ... Fifteen years ago while delivering and address in one of the churches he was attacked by paralysis from which he never recovered and since that time we believe he has not been off his own premises. He was the father of the late Capt. James McCurdy and of Andrew McCurdy of this city. Mrs. Dr. J.J. Johnson is his only daughter. The funeral will take place today at three o'clock.

RIVER NEWS---J. A. NEAL, pilot on the steamer Blaine, fell dead in the pilot house of his boat while making up a tow at Safe Harbor, near Wellsville, early Wednesday morning. Heart disease was the cause. No response being received from the pilot house to numerous signals given, the Captain entered to find poor Neal dead, with one hand grasping the wheel. Neal was one of the oldest pilots on the river, and leaves a wife and several children in Wheeling, where his body was taken Wednesday.

JOTTINGS OF THE WEEK--SATURDAY

REV. W. M. HUNTER, a Presbyterian minister, at one time a citizen of Steubenville, and brother of ex-Recorded Joe and James Hunter, formerly of this county,was granted a divorce from his wife at Zanesville, on the charge of desertion. Her maiden name was Anna M. Dickinson, of Mt. Pleasant, and she was about to institute proceedings in divorce herself on the grounds of abuse. She is now living with her mother in Mt. Pleasant.

W. H. Mooney received a dispatch this morning announcing the sudden death of A. W.PATTERSON at his home in New York.No particulars of the death are given, but the supposition is that the cause was pneumonia. Mr. Patterson having symptoms of this dread disease when here a few days ago. The funeral will be from the Second Presbyterian Church Monday,but the hour is not given. Mr. Patterson was born at Patterson Mills, Pa. where he lived until a man when he engaged in general merchandizing at Paris. He came from Paris to Steubenville and for a long time was in the wholesale grocery business, Afterwards engaging in the wool business, which he carried on here and in New York ever since. About thirteen years ago he moved from here to Chicago, but he lived there but two years, going from there to New York. He was a man of unblemished character; honest and honorable he was respected by all his many friends. He was a good business man whose integrity was never doubted. He leaves a wife and five children: Will and James of New York, and Thomas of Fortress Monroe; Ella and Lida, who have lost an affectionate husband and indulgent father.

Wm. Murray, Sr., of Mt. Pleasant, was in the city yesterday en route to New York, from which place he expects to sail Saturday for Edinburg, Scotland, to visit his old home. . .

Mrs. Julia A. Allison, died at the residence of Col. Milton Barnes, Westerville, Ohio, the 5th of April. She was born in Washington County, Pa. November 1813, and at her death was about 74 years of age. She was the wife of the late James C. Allison, brother of W. R. Allison of the Ohio Press, and was the daughter of Col. John Vance, who resided near the town of Washington, and who was a Colonel in the War of 1812. She was the youngest of a family of seven children, all of whom are now deceased, she being the last of the family. When about the age of 21 years, she was married to James C. Allison, the result of which marriage was one child. now Mrs. Rhoda A. Barnes, wife of Milton Barnes, Ex-Secretary of State. When about the age of 24, Mrs. Allison's husband died. . . The family were among the early pioneer Presbyterians of Washington County. . .

The Wheeling Intelligencer goes into details as to John Johnson. . . a veteran inebriate, well known to almost every resident of Warren Township, the son of John Johnson, Esq., one of the wealthiest residents of the township. About twelve years ago John fell in love with Miss Maggie, a daughter of Mr. J. Scamehorn, a resident of Portland, and gained her consent to marry him. The lady's parents. . . objected so strenuously to the match. . . that John and the bride (eloped). In a short time after their honeymoon, JOhn resumed his old habits and would get beastly drunk and would train himself for the prize ring at the expense of his wife. . . who decided to leave him. Her father. . .forbade the woman to come home. . . John finally induced her to return. About a week later, he thought to dispose of his wife with a shot gun, but she escaped. . . He became notorious as a hopeless case of drunkenness. His wife applied for divorce and alimony and her case was to have come up yesterday morning. . . in the Steubenville Court. . . Johnson recently attempted to kill himself and it is thought by some that this was an attempt at suicide.

SATURDAY

Joseph Hammond, aged 16 years, ate ten hard boiled eggs at Bellaire on Easter. Several days later he was taken ill from indigestion. A physician was called and tried every way in his power to give relief, but to no avail. The sufferer died yesterday in great agony.

John Gow, the Panhandle engineer who was killed at the Bovey House row, it is now said, was not the tough the accounts sent out by some correspondents seem to intimate. On the contrary, he was a man highly respected, and was only by accident in the crowd that attacked the watchman. He will be buried on Sunday, and the highest honors will be paid the remains by the Brotherhood of Engineers. . .

MONDAY

James Maley died this morning (April 16th) at his residence on Sixth Avenue, aged 49 years. He was born in Ireland and came to this country 32 years ago. He was united in marriage to Miss Anna West some 24 years ago, who with seven children, two sons and five daughters, survive him.

Quite a lively row occurred at Emerson, more familiarly known as Trenton, a small town near Mt. Pleasant, on Saturday. Some time since a colored woman named Maria Holman, died in that town, leaving a small piece of property to be fought for by the heirs. Andrew Richardson, one of the heirs, has been living in the house, much to the chagrin and disgust of Solomon Purdy and Allie Purdy, his wife, also heirs of Maria Holman. On Saturday the Purdys went to Richardson's house and proceeded to summarily dispose of him; quit his title to the property and force him to leave his claim. Solomon held him in a chair while his better helf did him up artistically with a fire poker. Richardson got loose and turned upon the Purdys, and soon had them both knocked out. The fight created quite an excitement in the little village. Richardson still enjoys the free possession of his legacy.

A CANOE CAPSIZES---from the Pittsburg Dispatch

A very sad accident occurred on the Conemaugh River, near Johnstown, yesterday morning, whereby Rev. N. B. C. Comingo, pastor of the Mount Oliver Presbyterian Church, and Mrs. E. C. Orth, both of this city, met their deaths by drowning. It was learned that the two gentlemen went to Johnstown on Tuesday. . . making preparation for their departure for Pittsburg in a canvas covered canoe. . . it was the intention to leisurely paddle back. . . camping out on the river shore. . . The Conemaugh was swollen by the rains and its usually slow flowing current had increased until it resembled a mill race. . . they determined to take the risk. . . They had hadly reached the center of the stream before the canoe was capsized, and both the occupants were thrown into the swollen river. . . Up to this hour the bodies have not been recovered.

Rev. Mr. Comingo is a son of the late Rev. Mr. Comingo. . . whose remains are buried in the Steubenville Cemetery.

Mr. Orth is also a native of Steubenville, and was the son of George Orth, at one time a prosperous woolen manufacturer of this city. The young man was a promising artist of Pittsburg, where he has three brothers who are prominent architects.

This makes the 3rd. drowning in the Comingo family. Years ago John S. Davison and his son John were drowned in the Beaver River. They were the uncle and cousin respectively of Mr. Comingo.

TWO MEN KILLED -- Friday, Daily Gazette

George Owens and son Charles Owens were both killed while engaged in digging a well on the Thomas Johnson farm in Island Creek Township yesterday. The well was down twenty-five feet, the young man being in the well and the father at work on the windlass above. A large bucket of earth was being drawn out and when near the opening, the rope broke. The bucket with the heavy contents fell back, striking the young man. The father, seeing that his son wasinjured went down into the well on a ladder, fastened the rope about the young man with a view of drawing him to the surface. He then started up the ladder for this purpose, but when near the top, his foot slipped and he fell back into the well, striking his head against the ladder, killing him instantly. The almost lifeless form of the son and the dead body of the father were discovered a few minutes afterwards by members of the family. . . the young man was taken to the house, where. . . he died at one o'clock. The two bodies were interred in the Presbyterian Church yard this afternoon at one o'clock. The father was about forty years of age and the son seventeen, both industrious, hard working men, who were respected by their neighbors. She was the mother of Mrs. James Longnecker, of New Brighton, Pa.; Mrs. Harry Campbell, Rochester, Pa.; Mrs. Medley, Albion, Kansas; and Mrs. Wm. Kell of this city.

One of the saddest deaths that ever occurred in Steubenville was that yesterday evening of Harry, the twelve-year old son of Charles Specht. . . The little fellow. . . had started to school in the morning, happy and enthusiastic. . . Just before school was dismissed. . . arrangements were made among Harry's school mates to go swimming at the close of the afternoon session. . . they went down Dock Street to the river where they all went into the water as happy as boys can be. In a very few minutes Harry had got beyond his depth, and being unable to swim, went down. It is supposed that he took cramp, for he appeared unable to struggle. Thomas McDonald, a one legged man who was on the beach. . . immediately jumped in and dived, bringing up the body in less than ten minutes. . . Col. McKee was nearby and ran to the body and two men did all in their power to resuscitate life. In the meantime Dr. Moffat was sent for and arrived in a very few minutes. . . but without avail. . . . Sent for Mr. Specht, telling him that a boy was drowned and he was possibly his son. . . It was a terrible blow to him. . . The Specht home is a sad household.

JOTTINGS OF THE WEEK

THURSDAY

Last night at about eight o'clock, the dead body of Mrs. Jack Edmonds was found in the second story room of the Sutcliffe house on South Street, the woman having committed suicide by taking poison. . . She was out of work and had no means at all for support since the death of a daughter about one year ago. . . Her husband, who is still living, is in the poor house where he has been for several years. The two have not lived together for two years at least. He was a coal miner. . . The death of Mrs. Edmonds calls to mind an explosion oof a keg of gunpowder, about fifteen years ago, which caused the death of three of her children. . . The three small children while playing about, set it on fire. The poor woman has hardly been in her right mind since. . . Her age was nearly sixty years. . .

SATURDAY

Ann Devin, aged fifteen years, died at her home, at Edgington, this morning. The remains will be taken to Crafton for interment.

Leanna Jackson, aged 40 years, died at her home on Kilgore St. this morning. She leaves two sons, Edward, of Cleveland and Melville of Steubenville.

The funeral of Wm. Caldwell took place Sunday from his late residence on South Seventh Street. . .

TUESDAY

Miss Annie Shooe, niece of A. M. Blinn, was married at his residence last evening (Nov. 19th, to Frederick Albright, of Pittsburg. . . The happy couple will leave for their Pittsburg home Thursday evening. . .

Peter Swiner, an old and well known teamster of this city, died very suddenly at Mingo last night. . . taking sick on the wagon, he got off and went into Greer's stable and died inside of five minutes. His remains were brought to Steubenville. . . where they will be interred Wednesday morning. . . He was about 60 years of age and had no relatives here.

OBITUARY

William Caldwell, an old citizen of Steubenville, died at his home on South Seventh Street, Friday night, aged 78 years. He was born in Westmoreland County, Pa., June 29, 1810. He came with his parents to Steubenville when a small boy and he lived here up to his death. He was a finisher in woolen mills. . . The last employment in a woolen mill Mr. Caldwell had was in the Wallace factory and that was burned in 1875, and never rebuilt. Since then he has been a watchman in Anderson's planing mill. In 1852 he was married to Harriet McFeely. Of the children born four are living: Matthew, Charles and Horatio G. at home, and William at Takoma, Washington Territory. Three brothers are living; Hugh of Columbus, Joseph of Pittsburg, John of Claysville, W. Va. Funeral Sunday afternoon.

PERSONAL

Mrs. Isabel Treadway, of Lodi, California, formerly a well-known resident of Steubenville, a sister of Mrs. Rebecca Morrison, is reported by her friends in this city as lying very low with typhoid fever.

Miss Ella Russell, a native of Jefferson County, receives the highest econnium from European critics. The Cork Examiner of Nov. 1st, in noticing a production of Traviata in the Theatre Royal says: "It would tAke a great deal of space to do justice to the performance of the gifted artists of Mr. Harris, Royal Italian Opera Company. The chief part was sustained by Mlle. Ella Russell who made a profound impression by her singing. It would be a very exacting person who would look for a more thoroughly satisbying performance of the part. Miss Russell has a soprano of rare timbre. It is of pure and delightful quality with that bird-like character so rare in voices. It is an almost pehnominally high voice, yet it is rich in the middle and lower register, and the very highest notes are sweet in an extraordinary degree."

OBITUARY

One of Island Creek's brightest jewels passed away in the person of little Etta, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. F. (Samuel) Burchfield. She died Saturday morning at nine o'clock, Nov. 17th, 1888, aged three years and three months. (Poem follows.)

DEADLY POWDER, AN AWFUL EXPLOSION, NEAR MT. PLEASANT.

The earthquake felt here Sunday afternoon and as far South as Moundsville, and East as far as Washington, Pa., was caused by the esplosion of powder and dynamite at Mt. Pleasant. The explosion occurred at No. 2 tunnel. . . two miles west of Mt. Pleasant, in the Short Creek Valley. . . The explosives were stored in a frame building on the hill side at the mouth of Long's Run. According to the Wheeling Register account. . . a young man named Duncan, who was employed as a water carrier in the tunnel, went to the magazine, promising to show his two young friends how the men handled powder. He found the building locked. . . he promptly knocked off the lock with a stone and entered the building puffing a cigar. . . His companions took to their heels. . . (and) saved their lives. There was a terrible explosion, rather long continued. . . and then there came a sharper, crashing sound, as the dynamite let go. . . John Parrish. . . was struck in the back of the neck by a flying timber from the house, and obtained almost innumerable wounds over his body. He will probably die. ... It is little short of a miracle that the fatal casualties are not numbered by scores.

THURSDAY

Wm. Kean, of Bergholz, was in the city this morning looking for his son who left home yesterday morning before breakfast. Two years ago the boy had typhoid fever which left his mind weak, and he has been at times very much of a charge. The father said he traced him to Richmond but got no further word of him. He went to Wellsburg hoping the boy would be foundwith an aunt who lives there, but returned this evening without finding him. (He advertised) :" My 18 year old son, David, has been missing from his home since Wednesday morning, Dec. 26th. He is about 5 feet 5 inches tall, slightly round shouldered, has dark hair and light eyes, and owing to a severe illness his mind is somewhat weak. He wore a black suit and low-crowned, round top stiff hat. Any information will be gratefully received and parties furnishing information will by compensated for their trouble."

(singed) William Kean

While out hunting yesterday, Howard Critser, son of Uriah Critser, of Island Creek Township, let his gun slip. . . making a terrible wound and necessitating the amputation of the whole hand excepting the thumb. . .What makes the loss of his right hand worse is the fact that his left hand was already disabled.

OBITUARY

The community of East Springfield has recently suffered an irreparable loss in the death of one of her oldest and most highly respected citizens, Mr. William McClave, who died at the family residence.. . on December 13th, 1888. Mr. McClave was born on the farm adjoining the one on which he died, Oct. 20, 1817, and consequently was 71 years, 1 month and 23 days old. No man in the community had a higher standing . . . He was beloved and respected by all who knew him. . . He was married Feb. 18, 1847 to Miss Susanna Kirk who with five sons and three daughters survives him. . . His remains were laid with kindred dust in the family burying ground at Circle Green. . .

OBITUARY

The many old friends of Thomas Brown, formerly a nailer at the Jefferson, were shocked on Christmas day to hear of his sudden death which occurred at Bellaire on Monday evening (Dec. 24th.). . According to the Wheeling Register's report Mr. Brown was walking the C. & P. track towards his home when he was hit by an engine. . . death resulted in a few minutes. Mr. Brown was, we believe, a native of Wheeling, when his father resided up to the time of his death, and where he had other relatives, his brother C.P. Brown, having within recent years, been Sheriff of Ohio County. At the opening of the war, however, Tom. . . enlisted in Capt. Sarratt's Co. G. 2nd Ohio Regiment. . . Served as First Lieutenant Co. H. 179th O.V,I. . . He was married early in the "sixties" to Miss Mattie, daughter of James Sterling, of this city, who with six children survive him; others dying in childhood. The survivors are: Mary wife of W. C. Newman, of Middletown, Connecticut; Sterling of the Acme Glass Works, Steubenville; Fannie at St. Louis with her uncle Elliott, city editor of the Globe Democrat; Emma, Samuel and Louise at home. Mr. Brown was brother-in-law to James Gregg and George Sterling, ex-Postmaster at Wheeling. We are informed his remains will be brought to Steubenville for interment in the Union Cemetery. . .

Harry R. Ferree, who was born Oct. 23, 1802, at Peter's Creek, Allegheny County, Pa., died at the residence of his son, J. L. Ferree, No.502 Adams Street Tuesday morning, the 25th, in his 87th year. Mr. Ferree was a descendant of French Huguenots who first settled in New York State and afterwards removed to Pennsylvania. Joel Ferree, the father of the deceased, was one of the early settlers of Allegheny County and established the first powder mill west of the Allegheny Mountains. He also manufactured guns and shot. At the breakout of the War of 1812 he was commissioned Lieut. Col. of a Pennsylvania Regiment and served with Gen. Harrison in northern Ohio, but died from exposure during that campaign, leaving a widow and a large family of children. Harvey H., at the age of 26, was married to Margaret Lowe, and removed to Bellevernon, Fayette County, Pa. where he resided until 1850, and where his large family of children were born. In 1850 he came to Ohio and located at New Alexandria, this county, and three years later came to Steubenville where he continued to reside up to the time of his death. He leaves a widow, one daughter and four sons to mourn his loss. His daughter, Mrs. John McFeely and his son J. I. are residents of this city. Calvin resides at Helena, Montana Territory; Joel at Columbus, Ohio; and Newton at Washington City. Funeral Thursday.

Margaret L., wife of Jacob Wolff, died at her home in this city, Monday night at 9:30, of paralysis, aged 77 years. The deceased was born March 14, 1811, at New Market, Frederick County, Md. She was married to Mr. Wolff June 22, 1836. She was the mother of ten children, seven of whom are living: Mrs. John Shively, of Dillon, Montana; Mrs. Anna M. Reece of Lazearsville, W. Va. ; Mrs. Nellie Corbett of this city; C. C. Wolff of Baltimore; R. Wolff, Superintendent of the District Telephone Co., Wheeling; T. Frank Wolff of Pittsburg and Mrs. W.B. McFeely of this city. Mrs. John Blackburn formerly of this city, but now of Cleveland, is a sister of the deceased. The funeral took place this afternoon. M. P. Church.
